ORGANIZATIONS IN CONSULTATIVE STATUS WITH IMO

1 Rule 10 of the Rules Governing Relationship with Non-Governmental International Organizations requires the Council to review, from time to time, the list of non-governmental organizations to which consultative status has been granted, in order to determine whether the continuance of that status in any particular case is necessary and desirable; and to report to the Assembly accordingly. In pursuance of this Rule, the Council usually undertakes biennial reviews.

2 The previous review by the Council was completed at its twenty-fourth extraordinary session in November 2007 and a report was submitted to the twenty-fifth session of the Assembly. The present document provides the Council with background information for the review required by the aforementioned Rule to enable the Council to report to the twenty-sixth regular session of the Assembly as per the established practice. The document comprises:

- the current list of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with IMO (annex 1);
- information on the participation, at IMO meetings, of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with IMO, during the period 1 March 2007 to 28 February 2009 (annex 2); and

For reasons of economy, this document is printed in a limited number. Delegates are kindly asked to bring their copies to meetings and not to request additional copies.

- information on the participation of the IMO Secretariat in meetings organized by non-governmental organizations in consultative status with IMO during the same period (1 March 2007 to 28 February 2009) (annex 3).

ORGANIZATIONS IN CONSULTATIVE STATUS WITH IMO ON A PROVISIONAL BASIS

3 In accordance with Rule 1 of the Rules Governing Relationship with Non-Governmental International Organizations, the Council may grant consultative status to any non-governmental international organization on a provisional basis for a period not exceeding four years.

The International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW) and the International Spill Control Organization (ISCO)

4 At present, two organizations enjoy consultative status with IMO on a provisional basis, namely the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW) and the International Spill Control Organization (ISCO).

5 The Council, at its twenty-fourth extraordinary session, decided, upon the recommendation of the MEPC at its fifty-sixth session in July 2007 and that of the MSC at its eighty-third session in October 2007, to grant consultative status to IFAW on a provisional basis, for no more than two years – after which, a review of its contribution would be conducted.

6 Also at its twenty-fourth extraordinary session, the Council decided, upon the recommendation of the MEPC at its fifty-sixth session in July 2007, to grant consultative status to ISCO, on a provisional basis, for no more than two years – after which, a review of its contribution would be conducted.

7 Both of the aforementioned decisions were endorsed by the Assembly at its twenty-fifth regular session in November 2007 (resolution A.1009(25)).

COUNCIL RECOMMENDATIONS

8 In accordance with Rule 10 referred to above, the conclusions and recommendations of the Council will be submitted to the twenty-sixth regular session of the Assembly for consideration and action, as appropriate.

ACTION REQUESTED OF THE COUNCIL

9 The Council is invited to consider the information provided in this document with respect to:

- .1 the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW) – and decide whether to extend its provisional consultative status for another two years; to convert its provisional status to full consultative status; or to withdraw the provisional status granted;
- .2 the International Spill Control Organization (ISCO) – and decide whether to extend its provisional consultative status for another two years; to convert its provisional status to full consultative status; or to withdraw the provisional status granted; and
- .3 the remaining organizations listed in annex 1 – and decide whether they should retain their consultative status.
