

Information

According to 4th chapter. 11th § Fartygssäkerhetslagen (2003:364) the safety representative shall be selected by the employment crew onboard. The captain, engineer manager and the members who have been selected by the employer, do not participate when the safety representative is being selected.

When the safety representative has been selected, the captain shall according to 5th chapter. 7th § shipsafety regulations (fartygssäkerhetsförordningen) (2003:438), promptly notify The Swedish Transport Agency of the following:

- Name of the safety representative
- The Safety representative's protection areas and periods of specific assignments

If a safety representative should be responsible for more than one ship, then all the names of every ship name needs to be assigned in the same box below.
