Application for exemption for vehicle as relocation goods

When you apply for a verification of origin, you should state if you intend to apply for exemption for vehicle as relocation of goods. A vehicle classed as relocation of goods is subject to certain exemptions compared with the usual requirements at a registration inspection. The decision of whether to approve exemption for vehicle as relocation goods for your vehicle or not, is taken first after the verification of origin is approved. Your application has to have arrived at the Swedish Transport Agency no more than twelve months after the vehicle has been brought into Sweden.

To apply for exemption for vehicle as relocation goods, please fill in the form and send it to us along with documents certifying that you have:

- been a resident abroad for at least one year
- owned and used the vehicle during that year

Exemption for vehicle as relocation goods can only be approved if the number of vehicles are no more than what is considered normaly for the household's needs.

A vehicle inspection company can give you further information whether or not your vehicle need to use the rules of exemptions for vehicle as relocation goods.

Regulations applied

The Swedish Transport Agency's regulations on exemptions for vehicles imported for personal use and vehicles imported as relocation goods or that have been acquired from outside Sweden as inherited goods (2010:106).
