Decision reached on 22 January 2015.

The Swedish Transport Agency stipulates the following with support from 4 § of the Ordinance (2004:1101) on Aviation Security that 3§ of the Agency's regulation (2012:113) for the general charge compensation system for security checks of passengers and their baggage shall have the following wording.

3 § The air carriers mentioned in 1 § are obliged to pay a charge of SEK 37 per passenger for the security checks of passengers and their baggage, with the exception of

1. passengers in transfer,
2. passengers in transit,
3. children under two years,
4. crew members, when performing their duties in the airline's own airplane, and
5. passengers in the event of a re-start, after the aircraft has returned to the airport due to technical problems or adverse weather.

This statute shall enter into force on 1 May 2015.
