

Regulations Amending the Swedish Transport Agency's Regulations and General Advice (2012:113) on the General Charge Compensation System for Security Checks of Passengers and their Baggage;

TSFS 2017:3

Published on
3 February 2017

AVIATION

Series GEN

Decision reached on 1 February 2017.

The Swedish Transport Agency stipulates, with support of Section 4 of the Ordinance (2004:1101) on Aviation Security, regarding the Agency's Regulations and General Advice (TSFS 2012:113) on the General Charge Compensation System for Security Checks of Passengers and their Baggage that the existing Section 18 shall be designated Section 21,

that Section 3 shall have the following wording, that the heading immediately preceding the existing Section 18 shall be placed immediately before Section 21, that three new Sections, 18–20, shall be introduced, and immediately before Sections 18–20, new headings with the following wording

3 §¹ The air carriers stated in Section 1 are obliged to pay a fee for security checks of passengers and their baggage. The charge shall be SEK 43 per passenger, with the exception of

1. passengers in transfer,
2. passengers in transit,
3. children under two years of age,
4. crew members, when performing their duties in the airline's own airplane, and
5. passengers, in the event of a re-start after the aircraft has returned to the airport due to technical problems or adverse weather.

Payment

18 § Unless otherwise stated, fees charged in accordance with these regulations shall be paid when the Swedish Transport Agency has debited with the amount due. Payment shall be made to the account indicated by the

¹ Most recently amended by TSFS 2015:4

Swedish Transport Agency, and at the latest by the date stated on the invoice.

Reminder fee

19 § In case of written reminders, an administrative fee of SEK 50 will be charged.

Interest on overdue payment

20 § If payment is made after the due date, interest on overdue payment will be charged according to the applicable reference rate plus eight percentage points.

On behalf of the Swedish Transport Agency

JONAS BJELFVENSTAM

Johan Bång
(Civil Aviation and Maritime Department)

This is a translation of the Swedish Transport Agency's regulations from Swedish into English. If the translation does not fully correspond to the Swedish content, the Swedish original will always have priority.