

Regulations Amending the Swedish Transport Agency's Regulations and General Advice (2012:113) on the General Charge Compensation System for Security Checks of Passengers and their Baggage;

TSFS 2022:64

Published on 23 June 2022

AVIATION

Series GEN

Decision reached on 3 June 2022.

The Swedish Transport Agency stipulates, with support of Section 4 of the Ordinance (2004:1101) on Aviation Security, regarding the Agency's Regulations and General Advice (TSFS 2012:113) on the General Charge Compensation System for Security Checks of Passengers and their Baggage, that Sections 3 have the following wording.

Section 3 The air carriers stated in Section 1 are obliged to pay a fee for security checks of passengers and their baggage. The charge shall be SEK 46 per passenger, with the exception of:

1. passengers in transfer;
2. passengers in transit;
3. children under two years of age;
4. crew members, when performing their duties in the airline's own airplane; and
5. passengers, in the event of a re-start after the aircraft has returned to the airport due to technical problems or adverse weather.

This statute enters into force on 1 October 2022.

On behalf of the Swedish Transport Agency

JONAS BJELFVENSTAM

George Tekmen
(Department of Civil Aviation and Maritime Affairs)